

Revision List

Foundation

- Pie charts
- Bar charts
- Range
- Mean
- Ordering fractions, decimals and percentages
- Multiplying and dividing decimals (using one calculation to work out another)
- Suitable samples
- Substitution
- Angles in a triangle
- Angles in parallel lines
- Forming and solving equations
- percentages
- product of prime factors
- factorising
- solving equations
- expanding brackets
- nth term of a sequence
- writing and using a formula
- using a square/square root/cube root button on calculator
- proportion
- using a calculator to work out long calculation
- averages from grouped frequency tables
- angles in polygons

Your test will be split into two papers, 1 hour non-calculator and 1 hour calculator. You must remember to bring your scientific calculator with you.