

What's the difference between Language and Literature?

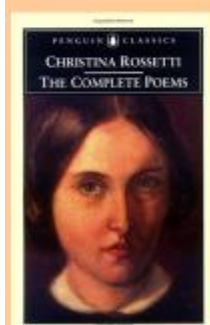

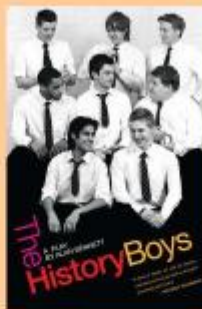

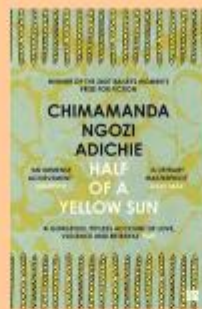

LITERATURE

Study novels, plays and poems in detail.

LANGUAGE

Study the way in which writers use language in texts from the 'real world', both WRITTEN and SPOKEN.

A Level English Literature
2026 Leavers:
100% Pass rate
Average grade: B

EXAM BOARD: OCR

A Level (Year 13)

Exam 1:

- Shakespeare (repeated from Year 12)
- Poetry written before 1900 (Rossetti repeated from Year 12)
- Drama written before 1900 (Duchess of Malfi)

Exam 2:

- Two texts from a topic area (e.g. Dystopian) Unseen Extract and a comparative essay
- Non-examined Assessment (Currently 'The History Boys' compared to 'Half of a Yellow Sun', 'Brick Lane' or 'Small Island', 'The World's Wife' by Carol Ann Duffy.)

Any questions speak with your teacher or email

Mrs Graham

A.graham@Alleyne.staffs.sch.uk

Or

Miss Hunt

D.hunt@Alleyne.staffs.sch.uk