

Year 12 A-Level Revision List

- Sales volume and value
- Market share
- Market size
- Income elasticity of demand
- Decision Trees
- Market Capitalisation
- Marketing Mix

Class notes will be the most beneficial resource in terms of revising, combined with a revision guide or textbook if you have one. If not please see a couple of links below:

Finally, the best website to use for revision is Tutor2u. They have definitions of all key terms and videos on key concepts, so if you type in 'decision trees' for example a video will come up that will talk you through the concept.

If you have any questions, please ask your class teachers.
